SPROULE ORDERS NEW FRUIT CARS

The Pacific Express to Spend
$2,500,000 on 2000
Refrigerators.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—William Sproule, president of the Pacific Fruit Express, and of the Southern Pacific Company, decided yesterday to immediately order $2,500,000 more refrigerator cars for the former concern to keep pace with the constantly growing business of California and other coast states demanding that character of transportation. The order means 2000 more refrigerator cars, at each one costs $1250.

It was only a month ago that the Pacific Fruit Express ordered 1098 new cars at a cost of $1,373,500. Another and larger equipment order, following so soon after, is due to this fall's demand for that class of cars. Sproule and Judge Lovett are convinced more should be ready for next year's business to prevent, in part, at least, the great scarcity now existing for refrigerators in all the Pacific coast territory of the Harriman lines.

The Pacific Fruit Express is jointly owned by the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific and has now in use 8902 cars. When the two new orders are filled it will have 13,000 cars, valued at $16,250,000.

Oranges, lemons, apples, deciduous fruits, grapes, celery and many kinds of vegetables require shipment from California to all parts of the United States. Apple and vegetable shipments, with green fruits in Idaho, Utah, Oregon and Washington, states tributary to the Harriman lines, also demand rolling stock of this character.

California is by far the country most demanding this kind of transportation, for it has about 45,000 carloads of oranges a year from its central, southern and northern districts; 4000 cars of apples, 14,000 of green fruits and grapes, 3000 of lemons, 1500 of celery and other thousands for many classes of vegetables.

The importance and size of the California refrigerator car traffic are further emphasized when it is remembered that the Southern Pacific does not handle it all. The Santa Fe has some 7000 similar cars and divides this big traffic plum with the Southern Pacific and the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake, which is partly owned by the Harriman people. The latter road uses Pacific Fruit Express cars.

WILL DISCUSS EVILS OF ANNEXATION SCHEME

BERKELEY, Oct. 17.—The citizens of Berkeley will have an opportunity this evening to hear the truths of San Francisco's efforts to annex the cities about the bay when W. E. Gibson, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, will speak at a mass meeting at the Berkeley high school auditorium. President Gibson is well informed on the details of the annexation plan, and will present them in a fashion calculated to dispel any misapprehensions. The meeting has been arranged by the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, which has issued a cordial invitation to the public. The San Francisco side of the question is also to be presented by the meeting taking the form of a debate.

BOURBON LEADER WRITES APOLOGY

Declares That He Meant No
Intentional Affront at Piedmont.

As the climax to a sensation in the ranks of the Woodrow Wilson club in Piedmont, John Aubrey Jones, a well known war horse of Democracy, has sent a written apology to the officers of the club disclaiming any intentional affront. The incident that caused all the trouble occurred at a meeting of the Piedmont Woodrow Wilson Club Tuesday evening at 408 Piedmont avenue. It is alleged that Jones represented himself as an ardent Wilson supporter, but that when he got up to speak he endeavored to start a demonstration for Theodore Roosevelt.

"The bullet that sped into Colonel Roosevelt's breast at Milwaukee," shouted Jones, "killed Woodrow Wilson's chance for the presidency. That was as far as the speaker got, for the hall was in an uproar in a moment, and Jones was the target for jeers, hoots and denunciations. The speaker tried to continue and the chairman J. W. Albright abruptly adjourned the meeting.

A few of the more excited ones challenged Jones to a fist fight, while Edward Ormsby and Secretary C. S. M. Bartlett contended themselves with voicing their opinions in no uncertain terms.

Following a threat to read the well-known Democrat out of the party, the Wilson headquarters this morning received a lengthy letter from Jones apologizing for the "unintentional" insult, and declaring that he did not mean to convey the impression that he was for Roosevelt or favored the colonel's election, merely desiring to call attention to the political significance of the Milwaukee incident. The letter closed by saying: "Had I been permitted to continue my remarks you would have appreciated my meaning better and the amenities would not have been strained."

It is believed that Jones' apology will close the incident, but it may be a long time before he will be invited to speak at another Democratic rally.

EDDIE MAY KNOW HIS FATE TODAY

First of Cases Against Prosecutor Are Nearing an End.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—With today's hearing of the charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor person, preferred against City Prosecutor Guy Biddle, it was stated that the proceedings in the juvenile court would be closed.

Deputy District Attorney Blaire, in charge of the prosecution, said he would undoubtedly rest his case with the close of today's hearing, which, he thought, would be late in the afternoon. It has been announced by Eddie's counsel several times that no evidence for the defendant would be offered at the preliminary hearing, which was concerned with the alleged seduction of Eddie with Alice Fidler, a young married woman.

A motion to dismiss, it was said, would at once be offered by counsel for the defense, which, it was explained, would attack the constitutionality of the juvenile law.

Blaire stated that the second charge filed against Eddie by Alma Jones, an actress, would be heard as soon as the Phelps case had been finished.

It became known today that Reynold E. Blight, minister of the Los Angeles Fellowship, Dr. John B. Hayes, father of the referendum and recall in Los Angeles, and Lou V. Chapin, prominent in reform affairs, had signed an open letter asking the people to contribute to a fund which is being raised for the purpose of investigating allegations that Eddie had been made the victim of a conspiracy on the part of political opponents.

City and county officials and men prominent in the community life of West Oakland gathered this morning in St. Patrick's church, where a solemn requiem high mass was sung for the repose of the soul of the late William Mullins, father of John F. Mullins, chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

The elder Mullins was one of the oldest and most respected residents of West Oakland, a fact testified to eloquently by the hundreds who knelt in the pews of the big edifice and murmured the De Profundis.

Rev. Father George Quinn was celebrant of the mass, Rev. Father Robert Sampson acting as deacon, and Rev. Father J. B. McNally as sub-deacon. The duties of master of ceremonies fell to Rev. Father Edward Maher.

Father McNally, pastor of the church and a friend of the deceased for thirty-five years, preached the sermon and paid eloquent tribute to the dead man's life and attributes. An augmented choir sang the mass.

Those who officiated as pall-bearers at the church and at St. Mary's cemetery were James Henneberry, William Walsh, Daniel Ferguson, Frank Ahearn, P. Murphy and George Fitzgerald.

Surviving the late William Mullins are three sons: Daniel, William J., John F., and a daughter, Sarah A. Mullins.

Puts the Teeth to Sleep

I've found a way of putting sensitive teeth to sleep, so that dental work of any kind can be executed without discomfort to the patient.

Terryl's is what I call my great discovery. It is the only method known to dental science that actually makes all work on the teeth thoroughly painless. I don't administer cocaine or other poisons, which put a brake upon the heart action. Terryl's is effective in every instance, yet it is not injurious to man, woman or child.

By means of Terryl's I prepare and fill sore, aching teeth, grind down teeth for crowns, remove live nerves and extract old, broken roots that are embedded in the gums without causing even a twinge of pain.

Where the teeth are loose as the result of pyorrhea I cure them and make them tight in their sockets. I replace missing teeth by my Rex Alveolar method without resorting to plates or bridge-work. Once in place, Rex Alveolar teeth remain solid as a nail in an oak plank, and you can chew anything from French bread to beefsteak, with them.

The work of installing Rex Alveolar teeth is free from pain. There is no surgery about it—no incision—nothing whatever to dread. Two natural teeth in either jaw are all I need to build from. If you possess that many I'll guarantee to equip you with a full set that will be almost like real teeth in appearance, service and durability.

I am personally responsible for all work done in my office. It isn't exactly right I always make it right.

Give me a chance to prove my claims to you. Call and have your mouth examined free. I'll tell you just what is required and what the cost will be. Consultation free. Hours—8:30 to 5:30; Sundays, 10 to 12.

Those who cannot call should write for the free book explaining my Terryl's and Alveolar methods.

Small children are particularly susceptible to the sting of flies. They do not usually sting them as do bees. Frenz Adelman, who is as well known on the Pacific coast in musical circles as Kubelick or Elman, has been receiving a warm greeting from his admirers. Adelman was for many years associated with the foremost musical organizations in this vicinity and was concert master for the Fritz Schuel orchestra.

The other numbers on the bill are up to the Pantages standard and comprise "Just Like a Man," a breezy playlet presented by the Graham-Dent company; Paul Gordon and Rocco in cycling tricks; Boyle Woodfolk's "Chickadees," featuring Ralph Paine and Hazel McKee, and the Gaumont Weekly of world happenings, which is an exceptionally good film for this week.

A home-made vaudeville sketch and a home-made production is offered at the local stock company, a member of the act comedy "And His Wife Came Back." The act was written, rehearsed and produced by local people.

William A. Curtis, a newspaper man, and Ernest Van Pelt, a member of a local stock company, are the authors. Completing the manuscript, they assembled a company and undertook rehearsals.

Manager William Eley of the local Pantages house was called in to witness the final rehearsals, and he pronounced the act good. C. L. Cole, the San Francisco representative of the Pantages Circuit, next passed upon the sketch. He was likewise impressed with it, with the result that immediate booking was offered it.

The cast includes George M. Perkins, Florence L. Travers and George F. Henry.

"The act has a 'kick,' and that is what we want," announced Manager Eley in looking it over. "It certainly looks as if it ought to be a success. It is well written, and the production is all that could be asked for."

Curtis is the author of "Husbands of Mine," a four-act comedy recently produced and also collaborated on a play of the act good. C. L. Cole, the San Francisco representative of the Pantages Circuit, next passed upon the sketch. He was likewise impressed with it, with the result that immediate booking was offered it.

"Tis to laugh," said Harry Bernard. Seeling is believing. The Columbia theater down in Tenth street is ringing out with laughter from pit to dome this week. It's only natural that you should laugh at the amusing comedy that Bernard and his Musical Merry Makers are handing out in neatly wrapped packages labeled "Laughter." The skit is a mixture of mirth well seasoned with funny comedians, pretty girls and tuneful musical numbers. There is something doing every minute. From the rise of the curtain the action is fast and furious, with situations and complications follow in rapid succession. Quiet moments are conspicuous by their absence. Dull café and old man gobs receive a chilly reception from the jolly fun makers bunched together on the stage.

"The place has a plot, a consistent one, too, if one finds time to follow it. It's rather a difficult task to follow this and plot. You're too busy laughing. Briefly, the story is a series of happenings that befall an Irishman and a German stopping off for the time being at a resort noted for its fast horses and numerous scandals. Here the pair back up against real excitement in the shape of a race track grafter, a bogus count, a deaf old landlady and the natives of the village. The usual amusing mixups follow.

Harry Bernard and James Rowe are the chief comedians of sorrow, appearing in the principal comedy roles of Mike McGee's production.

The Little brown bear which carries the billing of Alice Teddy is cock full of mischief and jesses her trainer a merry life. Alice Teddy delights in doing her stunts on the stage and is never so happy as when tugging and tugging the young lad who engages with her in the wrestling bout. Alice's trainer says that it took months of patience to show the bear her own number, the roller skating specialty, and anyone who has seen the animal glide about with graceful stunts has been wrought by Oscar Wilde into the peculiar sounding lines he gives his characters in "Salome." Something of the uncanny feeling has been caught by Straness, and is conveyed by unimaginable means to the audience in the fiendish orchestration.

Although the singers in a Strauss opera are relegated to a secondary position, the part of Salome offers vocal and histrionic possibilities of a wide range. The title role will be carried by Tarquinia Tarquini, who created a furor in London by her creation of the eponymous role in "Conchita." Tarquini won the plaudits of the San Francisco critics for her Salome, their only criticism being that it was unpleasant to see charming a person should play so repulsive a part.

"Conchita" will be given Tuesday night, "Salome" being the offering for Sunday night. Monday the double bill, "I Pagliacci" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" will be heard.

"In Old Kentucky," announced for presentation at the Macdonough Theater on Friday and Saturday, October 18 and 19, enjoys practically the same popularity today as it did twenty years ago, when it made its first bow for public approval. It is not so difficult to account for this success, for it is a play for all time and deals with no particular question of contemporaneous interest that becomes stale with the course of years, but tells of a romance of the Kentucky mountains that could have happened this year as easily as it could have happened when the play was written by C. T. Dacey in the early nineties.

The play stands in the same relation to the South as "Shore Acres" and "Arlold Homestead" to New England, "Arlold Homestead" to the Southwest and "Alabama" to the Sunny South—a sample of the varied fabric of our national life, giving permanent dramatic form to that interesting and romantic period which the country has so recently brought to an abrupt termination. Life was less complex in those days, hence the simplicity and directness of thought and action. The action derives from within, and its presentation is as straightforward and restful as the open fields and broad mountain vistas of the Blue Grass State itself.

It would seem that the cry that goes forth in this age of commercialism for one who is an exponent of art for art's sake, has been answered in Owen McGinvey, the celebrated Irish character actor, whose impersonations of Dickens' characters are creating nothing short of a furor since they have come to this country as an Orpheum feature.

McGinvey has been a successful actor and has won his spurs on the stage in a variety of roles, but his dream has always been to impersonate Dickens and it is a joy for the work. He appears to his admirers as a simple and not a thought of "ain" that has kept him steadfast in his purpose. Great fame, and greater wealth, surely was at his call if he cared to take other inducements held out to him by English managers.

He read and re-read all his works and grew to know the characters. They were the most real, the most human of his acquaintances. His advent onto the stage and his entire histrionic career was for the sake and expressed purpose of learning to portray various characters. To be as funny as Sam Weller, as murderous as Bill Sikes, as noble as Daniel Peggotty—this was his ambition. For this he was willing to sacrifice years of his life, his wealth and fame, if necessary, but no such sacrifices was needed.

Baby's Curly

were precious to his mother's heart. She measured their growth with loving pride. She watched the tiny ringlets that clustered about his infant head grow into long curls that fell over his shoulder—and then the dreaded blow came.

"I think his hair should be cut," said his father, looking at him long and earnestly across the breakfast table.

The mother protested quickly. "Oh no, I do not want to have them cut. He won't be my baby any more."

"That's just it," responded the father. "We must begin now to make a manly little chap of him. The curls make him effeminate."

"Very well," she said, sorrowfully, "but you'll have to take him. I could not bear to go to a barber shop and wait among a lot of men while his hair is being cut. It would be so uncomfortable."

"There's no need of that. Take him to Capwells. They have a Children's Barber on the Mezzanine Floor in connection with the Women's Hair Dressing and Manicuring Parlors. I hear they have an expert in charge who for many years has specialized in children's hair-cutting. You'll get it done there most satisfactorily I am sure."

"How very nice that is. Isn't it perfectly splendid the manner in which that store provides for the convenience of its patrons?"

She brought the little chap down the next day and had his hair cut by Buster Brown fashion. When she saw how well it looked it took away a great deal of her regret over parting with his curls.

Now she brings him regularly and after his barbering takes him up to the Children's Play Room on the roof, where he thoroughly enjoys the numerous playthings provided there for the amusement of the little folks, while the mothers are attending to their shopping.

"Have you a Shoe Department?"

That is a question that has been constantly asked us since we opened the new store, and we are soon to be able to answer in the affirmative—and to answer proudly—for it is to be a department worthy of our pride and your patronage.

It will be opened the latter part of this month.

What shoes?
QUEEN QUALITY, of course. Worthy in every way of the daintiest queen who ever wore a crown.

An interesting thing in connection with the opening of this Shoe Department will be the installation of a Ladies' Shoe Polishing Stand. This further convenience for women shoppers is to be gladly established in accordance with a wish expressed by many of our customers.

TWENTY-THREE YEARS!
A goodly time to have a business on that plane of service-giving which spells SUCCESS.

We invited you to share with us our twenty-third birthday welcome.

You have responded in a manner to make us rejoice with gladness.

May every plant and flower and twinkling light say to you for us: "Thank you. And welcome."

May every special offering of goods during this ANNIVERSARY WEEK prove how very real is the service of Capwell's.

Customers coming to the store nowadays are surprised to find changes in the position of departments and in the personnel. We regret the annoyance caused them by having to seek out new locations, but please remember that our only purpose is to better serve you. Where necessary for the improvement of our service we do not hesitate to make changes in departments.

SCENE I—Warm day, stuffy ground floor lunch room. Poor ventilation. Small of food. Hundreds of flies. No appetite.

SCENE II—The same day in our Roof Garden Lunch and Tea Room. Fresh, pure air—charming view. Odorous scent of flowers. No flies. Excellent cuisine, splendid service. Enjoyable lunch.

We are glad to note the interest of our women employees in the approach of our twenty-third birthday. A deputy registrar was sent out last week making every citizen feel that we were not alone in celebrating.

HUSBAND SAYS WIFE BEAT HIM

And Then, Declares E. H. Hart She Had Him Arrested for Battery.

After giving her husband a sound beating, Mabel Hart turned about and had him arrested for battery, according to the complaint for divorce filed by Emmett H. Hart. Mrs. Hart used her date with telling effect, plaintiff alleged, and in addition to that he said that she had called him names and remained away from home late at night, greatly to the neglect of their children.

W. F. Jarvis, a consulting engineer, was divorced by Edna K. Jarvis, while interlocutory decrees were granted also to Lena Osborn from Henry Osborn of Livermore on the grounds of desertion and to James H. Sprung from May Sprung for cruelty.

Final decrees have been issued to John E. Anderson from Julia Anderson for cruelty, to William Van Orner from S. Frank Van Orner and to George F. Burtchell from George F. Burtchell for desertion.

TYPHOID DISTRIBUTOR IS ALLOWED PROBATION

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—Harry Olson, sailor, distributor of typhoid germs and thus considered to be one of the most dangerous and unique characters on the coast, has been placed on probation for six months by the State Board of Health and the United States Marine Hospital Service. At the end of that time he must prove that he is free of typhoid or he will be again incarcerated.

Olson is a big, good-natured seaman, who was discovered last February to have been the direct cause of infecting twenty-eight cases of typhoid fever, four of which proved fatal. Since that time he has been confined in the Marine Hospital at San Francisco. A peculiar phase of Olson's case is that while his system is said to be a veritable hotbed for typhoid germs, he does not seem to affect him in the least. He is what is known among medical men as a "carrier."

HAMMERSTEIN SUES STAR WHO HIT HIM

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Broadway theater yesterday that the quarrel between Hammerstein and his newest operatic star, Miss Lynn, is to be tried in the federal court at Kansas City, Mo. The trouble had its inception in London when the Kansas City papers carried the story of the quarrel between the two with a roll of music because, as she charges, he insulted her.

Suit was brought yesterday by Hammerstein to recover one-half the royalties of Miss Lynn's Convention, which started under the direction of the Music Managers. He also asks for an injunction restraining her from making further appearances except under his direction.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON SPEAKS IN INDIANA

DAYTON, O., Oct. 17.—On the last lap of his middle western campaign, Governor Johnson of California left here today for Fort Wayne, Ind., to deliver an address this afternoon.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC USES NOVEL SIGN

The Mechanical "Ad" Attracts Thousands of Persons Daily.

The Southern Pacific has installed in its Broadway window a novel electric flashing sign which makes an innovation in railway display advertising in Oakland, it being the only electric sign of its kind in use by any company.

Its main features consist of a circular wheel containing slots for twenty-five advertising cards which alternately appear through an opening in the front of the sign, and a series of electric lights, these remain lighted for ten seconds when they are switched off and the card appearing in the opening is illuminated.

The first sign put on features the "Owl," Oakland's only limited train to Los Angeles. A large owl grasps in its claws a miniature pair of car wheels which appear to be running along the track from Oakland to Los Angeles. This idea is carried out in the headlines of the ad, which read: "The Owl goes down the line to Los Angeles every night in 1 3/4 hours."

The twenty-five cards gradually unfold the story of a "trip on the Owl," which brings out the different modern features of this train in an entertaining manner.

P. B. Crahan, city passenger agent, states that, from careful count, it is estimated that nearly 5000 people a day will stop and read this story. As the sidewalk was nearly blocked with the crowds that stopped there yesterday, it is evident that this newest innovation in "railroad row" has wonderful advertising possibilities.

It is the intention to put on a new "feature" every two or three weeks.

TWO NEW SCHOOLS ARE ALMOST COMPLETED

CARVER'S HORSES TO DIVE FOR TRIBUNE CHILDREN TOMORROW

Day at Idora Park to Be Eventful One
for 'Kiddies'

Clip Coupons and Go In
as Guest of This Paper;
Amusements Many

Hokey for tomorrow! That's what the children are saying, for they are to be the guests of THE TRIBUNE at Idora Park, where the world famous Carver Diving Horses are to give the school boys and girls a special exhibition. Tomorrow promises to be the day of all days at the Idora Park carnival and during the afternoon the school children are going to be the special guests.

Another coupon is printed in tonight's paper so if by chance you overlooked the coupons during the past two days, be sure to clip this one for tomorrow afternoon. It will be the same as a ticket to Idora. Then if possible, find the two back numbers of the paper and get the coupons, for they are good for rides on the mountain slide and good for admission to the moving picture theater. THE TRIBUNE these days is in more demand than ever for the kiddies, want the coupons just as bad as the grown-ups want the latest news.

Thousands and thousands of the school children have been to the Idora Park carnival during the past two days and witnessed the marvelous performance of these famous diving horses. But still there are many thousands who have been unable to see the exhibition.

And it is for these readers of THE TRIBUNE that this paper has made arrangements with Manager York of Idora to let them in free on Friday afternoon. Of all the thousands who have seen the show there is probably not one but who is willing to go to Idora again. So all he or she has to do is to clip the coupon and be at the big park on Telegraph avenue some time before 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon. Those who arrive early can ride the mountain slide and see the "movies" in the theater, for the diving horses do not perform until 4 o'clock.

Even before the time of Buffalo Bill, Dr. W. P. Carver was hunting buffalo on the plains of the middle west and when he was a young man was noted as a brave scout and marksman. It was many years ago that Buffalo Bill and Dr. Carver used to hunt buffalo together on the plains and both are getting along in years.

It is for his wonderful skill with the rifle that Dr. W. P. Carver is noted. The life on the plains with a rifle in his hands all day soon made him an expert and in later years he became a professional shot and gave exhibitions all over the world.

ROYALTY PLEASED.
When he went to Europe in 1890 he amazed the foreigners by his prowess with the rifle. The Prince of Wales, who later was King Edward, presented him with the Prince of Wales Feather, a distinguished decoration. If you can get close enough to the Doctor tomorrow you will see this little gold feather, surrounded by diamonds, in his necktie, for he wears it as a scarf pin. On his finger you will probably be able to notice a beautiful diamond ring. This was presented to him by Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany at Potsdam in the presence of 35,000 soldiers.

After shooting for over forty years Dr. Carver retired as the champion shot of the world, for in all this time no one came forward to equal him. He then turned his attention to training horses, which he has always regarded as his best friends. When in California 22 years ago, after returning from Australia, Dr. Carver thought of the stunt of training horses to dive. All his friends in the show business laughed at him and said the thing could not be done. But the Doctor knew better and presently found Powder Face, then a colt of two years. He began training the horse when very young and started in with low heights.

GIRL TO RIDE.
You will see Powder Face dive tomorrow. She is the first horse that makes the jump and will be ridden by a California girl, Miss Lorena Lorenza of California. The second horse to dive will be the wild Indian pony, Klatawah. He will be ridden by the pretty Indian girl, Two Feathers. This horse is extremely savage and can only be ridden by Two Feathers, who talks to him in the Indian language and soothes his nerves.

just before the big jump to the tank. While the diving horses are the big sensation, they are by no means the entire performance. The two girls, with the assistance of Mermaid, the English champion high diver, and Bobbie and Green, two of the best high divers in this country, will give the boys and girls an exhibition of fancy swimming and water tricks and will then do a number of high and fancy dives.

Bobbie and Green will go up on the ladder to the platform exactly 100 feet above the tank and dive head first. This is claimed to be the highest dive ever made into an artificial tank and is worth a trip to Idora just to see it. So don't forget the big show tomorrow, your school children. Be sure and save the coupons and go to Idora as the guests of THE TRIBUNE, for Dr. Carver has promised the paper that he will give one of the best exhibitions possible. It will be a treat you will long remember and something that you probably will never see again. Idora on Monday and go to Idora for the winter, so if you miss this opportunity you will have to travel a long way to see them.

U. S. CLOSES MANY IMPORTANT PORTS

Military Secrets Will Be Protected by President Taft.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—For the protection of military secrets of the United States, President Taft issued today an executive order forbidding foreign vessels to enter the following ports without the special authority of the Navy Department: Tortugas, Cuba; Great Harbor, Culebra; Guantanamo, Cuba; Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; Guam and Subig Bay, Philippines. The seaports are American naval bases.

The order specifically closes the harbors to commercial and privately owned vessels of foreign register as well as to the warships of foreign powers unless the Secretary of the Navy sanctions their entry.

Most of the ports practically have been closed for some time, but today's order officially closed them. Officials declared there was no reason for the action except the general policy of guarding naval secrets.

VALUES LOVE AT TOO HIGH RATE FOR COURT

OLYMPIA, Oct. 17.—The state supreme court yesterday ordered a new trial in the case of Mrs. Eliza A. Phillips vs. Mattie A. Thomas, in which the plaintiff gained a verdict for $25,000 damages for alienation of the affections of her husband. The supreme court held that the amount of damages was excessive.

Mrs. Thomas is 62 years old and is said to be worth $1,000,000, much of her fortune being invested in Seattle business property. She formerly lived in Seattle. The Phillipses lived many years in Spokane. In the trial of the case in Seattle in December 1911, Mrs. Phillips alleged that Mrs. Thomas, by representing that she was worth $2,000,000, induced Phillips to leave his family.

Mrs. Phillips obtained a divorce from Phillips in Spokane February 23, 1903. Phillips married Mrs. Thomas May 21, 1906, in Victoria, B. C., but they quarreled and Mrs. Phillips, December 17, 1910, in Seattle, obtained an annulment of the marriage to Phillips on the ground that it was void because contracted less than six months after Phillips had been divorced.

Rail Are So Tame That Ordinance for Their Protection Is Passed.

Rail, a species of water fowl are so tame in parts of Alameda county that, according to Supervisor Murphy "they may be knocked over with clubs which is not considered sportsmanlike manner of hunting wild game. Supervisor Murphy induced the board this morning to pass an ordinance prohibiting the shooting of rail from boats or barges and limiting this to twelve birds a day for one person. The former limit was twenty. Violation of the ordinance is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of from $50 to $100 or 60 days imprisonment in the county jail. Ten dollars reward is also provided for persons swearing to a complaint upon conviction of the defendant. The new law conforms with one in force in Santa Clara and San Mateo counties.

CHIEF OF POLICE ISSUES ORDERS

When One Citizen Accuses
Another Both Must Appear at Police Station.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Chief of Police White this morning issued orders that in future when one citizen accuses another of an offense, both must be taken to the station and be present when the booking is done.

In addition, a new regulation was put in force whereby the charge must be laid even if the complainant should desire to "back out." In the past it has frequently happened that one man has ordered the arrest of another, the latter being taken away in the patrol wagon and later there has come a refusal to lay the charge. The chief holds that the declaration of a citizen to prosecute should be made in the police court.

SPLIVALO TAKES BRIDE AND NO ONE IS WISER

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Suddenly deciding to get married, Edward H. Splivalo, son of the late Augustus D. Splivalo, attorney, and Miss Genevieve A. McCaffrey, 669 Fulton street, procured a license yesterday, called on Father Joseph McQuaid, and were united at Sacred Heart church without their friends being the wiser. Relatives of the young couple were not present.

The bride wore a traveling gown immediately after the wedding the elopers left for a honeymoon in Los Angeles, and so carefully had they laid their plans that Mrs. Katherine McCaffrey, mother of the bride, did not know whether they had taken boat or train, or where they intended to make their future home.

"I do not know when they became acquainted, or how," Mrs. McCaffrey said. "I think they decided on the wedding about two days ago. It was all very sudden. There was nobody present except the attendants of the church."

We eliminate the high price at the beginning of the season, followed by a system of reductions until after Christmas a ONE-THIRD reduction is offered. We BEGIN THE SEASON with the FINAL REDUCTION and keep the prices there THROUGHOUT THE SEASON.

We figure to sell more furs this way, thereby evening up the general profit. We know that a woman would rather buy a fur now at a low price than wait for the same price just as spring's first warm days appear.

BOY HAS NARROW ESCAPE IN STORM

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 17.—Geo. Comings, a 6-year-old boy, narrowly escaped death here by being washed into a sewer opening at Fourth and Delaware streets.

The boy, with two companions, was returning home from a picture show and attempted to cross the street. As he neared the walk, the water swept him off his feet and carried him to the opening. Bystanders rushed to his assistance, and after a struggle pulled the boy out. His head had entered the sewer hole, head first and when rescued he was half drowned.

PROHIBITIONISTS TO RALLY EACH SATURDAY

Have Some "Time Off"

"A man's work is from sun to sun, a woman's work is never done." An old saying that, but certainly not a truism—at least not with the woman who works intelligently and who has modern conveniences at hand.

And the modern convenience that assists as much as any other in helping the busy housewife to have some "time off" during the day is to cook with gas. Cooking with gas saves time and work. With gas in the house there's no tedious, time-consuming "getting ready" for a meal, no exasperating, troublesome cleaning-up after it. It helps shorten women's working hours by doing all that's demanded in the shortest possible time.

Cooking with gas is quick, clean, satisfactory. And thrifty women are unanimous in declaring it to be economical.

Why not have "Pacific Service" in your home. Don't consider its cost—that will take care of itself to your satisfaction. Consider the comfort derived from its use—its great convenience.

A phone call or postal will bring a representative to you with full information.

"Pacific Service" is "Perfect Service."

For San Francisco's Benefit Exclusively.

The most dangerous and objectionable feature of the annexation amendment (Number 6 on the official ballot) applies exclusively to San Francisco. We mean the permission it grants to municipalities having 350,000 inhabitants to cross county boundaries with annexation schemes. Los Angeles, the only other city in the state having the requisite number of inhabitants, is situated in the center of a large county, and will never be in a position to cross the boundary of any other county with schemes of annexation.

The amendment was drawn specifically to promote the designs of San Francisco. That city wants to invade and dismember the contiguous counties. The terms of the permission to make such invasions limit the operation of the amendment to San Francisco, which was the intention.

The Chronicle says it is not the intention to disturb the local governments as they now exist in the municipalities which San Francisco desires to absorb. The Chronicle's assurance is valueless. It does not bind anybody and will be treated as all the Chronicle's representations will be treated in case the annexation amendment should be ratified at the polls. What would be the sense of adding a third government expense to the double expense now entailed on the cities which are taxed to support county as well as municipal governments?

But our contemporary fights shy of the dismemberment question. It does not undertake to say what would happen to the rural sections of the counties San Francisco proposes to despoil of their population centers. They may go to the devil, for all San Francisco cares. After they have been raped and robbed they will make good fun for the vaudeville wits of San Francisco.

Then there is the bonding question, which the annexation speilers avoid discussing whenever they can. When they are forced to talk about it they do not tell the truth. They say any territory annexed to San Francisco would not be taxed to pay San Francisco's debts. It is true such territory would not be taxed to pay the interest and principal of bonds already sold and issued, but it would be subject to taxation to pay the principal and interest of bonds authorized but not sold at the date of annexation.

San Francisco has authorized bond issues aggregating $57,000,000, which have not been sold and issued. She would like to get the shoulders of her neighbors under that debt.

But San Francisco wants to borrow more money, and her bonding capacity is exhausted. She has big schemes on hand, and she would like for her neighbors to help pay for them. That is why she wants to pick the plums out of every adjoining county.

It is a magnanimous scheme, truly. But why should anybody outside of San Francisco favor it?

"Hell is a symbol of eternal loss, not eternal torment," says Rev. W. E. Coffman of Albany, thus turning the damper on hell fire. As some of us are pretty good losers, there is hope.

Berkeley and Consolidation.

Evidence that Berkeley is wide-awake to the importance of the annexation amendment and the need of overwhelmingly defeating it next month is produced in the plans of the Chamber of Commerce of that city to hold a debate on the subject. It is well that Berkeleyans do understand the situation, for the location in their midst of the University of California makes their autonomy peculiarly necessary.

The advisability of "taking the schools out of politics" is so often urged that one begins to believe after a while that the schools really are "in politics" at the present time. The moment an honest voter stops to consider such a condition his choler naturally rises. To be in politics, whether man or school, means to be subject to petty considerations, to pendulate between conflicting sentimentalities, to be unsteady, uncertain and insecure. Since what the schools need more than anything is the adoption of a normal program and the subsequent carrying thereof into effect with no look either to right or left, it is impossible to imagine without misgiving a situation wherein even remotely politics influence them.

We have come to consider the University of California as the keystone of our educational arch. We have striven to make it a little better than the university of any other State, not because we wish other States to have poorer universities, but because the instinct toward superiority has so directed us. And we have succeeded. California's university in number of students—and that means breadth of service—is stopped by but one college in the United States. We have achieved something of which we may be proud.

That university has been placed in the keeping of the city of Berkeley. The importance of the trust has made Berkeley a different sort of city from any other in the State. The feeling of responsibility has had its usual complement, an earnest effort to deserve it. Berkeley has such people and such laws and such traditions as befit the sponsor of such a university.

The university is tucked away in Berkeley. It is beyond the winds of politics, marked off by the Berkeley perimeter as something apart. The storm and stress of administration and election are heard by it only afar off.

Berkeley must think twice before she permits that university to become a part of San Francisco. As trusted agent of the State she must hold to the last her guardianship, continuing to surround the institution with such safeguards as she surrounds it with now. When she falls short in the duty, she will fall short in meeting the trust the State has imposed.

They Mean Business.

The Balkans have been ablaze so many times within the memory of man that we are accustomed nowadays to suspend astonishment while each incipient new conflagration is getting under way. It seems nearly time in the present instance, however, to begin to believe. The chief proof of the reality of this disturbance is in the departure for the scene of action of so many American and European military and naval forces. It is not unusual for foreigners whose fatherlands are involved in war to raise funds and send supplies, but when they actually begin to send themselves we may suspect that they mean business.

FATHER'S DILEMMA

This exodus of Hellenes from the land of the free to take up arms against their country's ancient enemy reminds us of the old poem that the school-boy orator used to sing-song from the teacher's platform on hallowed occasions:

"At midnight in his guarded tent
The Turk lay dreaming of the hour
When Greece her knee—"

And then he paused, shrinking at "suppliance." "When Greece her knee—when Greece her knee"—until finally teacher had to grease the flow of oratory.

But outside of that things are being pretty well greased up in Greece. The influx from all parts of the world assure the king of great armies and it looks as if after centuries her knee would indeed bend; not in suppliance, however, but stretching out for a good, swift kick.

Now that the busiest little war cloud in history has obscured the sun in the Balkans, the Mexican revolution will have to do something or get off the first page.

Teaching From the Stage.

The withdrawal from the pulpit of Rev. Frederick A. Wilmot of Boston is accompanied by a statement from the reverend gentleman to the effect that his influence for good will be increased by the change. This comparison, like most others, is of course, odious. It may serve, however, to point to the fact that the stage's influence toward moral regeneration never ceases to wax. And since regeneration, which is birth anew, is exactly what morals need at all times, the stage's impression upon humanity's ethical conceptions may be expected to be beneficial. We may pause, then, before uttering a pat condemnation of the Rev. Wilmot, to make sure whether earnest effort in his new field will not after all garner him grain.

Stagnation, bad enough even in the purely intellectual sphere, is ruinous when it comes to morals. As the man who hesitates is lost, then the more certainly is the moral dictum lost that hesitates, that does not progress. We may take it as a general rule, in this regard at least, that we are in more deadly peril the more contented we become. It is only when we have firmly set our faces against the retention of anything we have outgrown that we really achieve safety.

Now, it is inertia that is largely to blame for our not always shaking off the worn-out garments of intellectuality and ethics, of economics and politics. Laziness is 'the gospel of men who continue to wear them. Such garments may become dilapidated and thread-bare, out at knees and elbows, but they are on, at least, and it takes work to doff them and don new ones. The easiest way is to let them be. So, after a while, we come to defend them simply because we object to the effort necessary for a change.

Modern drama, the kind that impels the auditor to thought, besides merely interesting him, puts its finger in the frayed edges of these garments and rips them so far that the substitution of new ones cannot be avoided. When Ibsen released "Ghosts" and Suderman "The Joy of Living" and Gorky "In the Depths," the innumerable Mr. Everybodies who had gone on for centuries hiding the frayed-out sleeves of their moral and political coats in their still more frayed-out pockets, first writhed and then struck back, proposing numerous impromptu arguments, why what was was good enough. But of course these were always reducible to the same ultimate insipidity, that whatever is, is right.

But the new drama does not falter. It says, with the impelling insistence of a galling gun: "Think, think, think!" You may hide behind righteous indignation, you may plead ancestral examples, you may hide the frayed edges even deeper in a desperate last retirement upon laziness itself, but you cannot escape that continued "Think, think."

Perhaps, after all, Rev. Wilmot has not lost all in cleaving to the stage to spread his doctrine. The stage continues to do business seven nights and two matinees in the week. It is not the least ephemeral of human instructors, but it can draw so near its pupils that it cannot be gone around.

BAY AMENDMENT A BAD ONE

If there is one amendment upon which the people will vote in November that ought to be killed by them it is the plan of San Francisco to absorb 30 towns and cities in the four bay counties. This scheme originated in San Francisco and was fostered by a few schemers whose tactics have only caused that city to be branded throughout the interior as the most selfish community on the map. Political purity has never been too much in evidence in San Francisco at best and the present plan adds nothing to the confidence that San Francisco sorely needs throughout the interior counties. The plan proposed authorizes the division and destruction of counties. It permits certain large cities to concentrate under their control extensive revenue producing areas for assessment purposes. It paves the way in the case of San Francisco of building up a vast political machine and power that will dominate the affairs of the entire state.

Under the plan proposed Los Angeles and San Francisco, with a little trading of political plus could control to a certainty the state legislature. Besides these objectionable features the plan sought by San Francisco would place under the control of a political board the entire waterfront of San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda—a danger not to be too lightly considered. With San Francisco gaining the territory for which the amendment paves the way it would impose upon all of its people an indebtedness wholly unfair and only make possible future bond issues that would add nothing to the communities absorbed yet tax them heavily.

Oakland and the neighboring towns do not want to be taken in and they are appealing for help against the attacks of the municipal monster across the bay and the voters of the interior will display a lack of American fair play if they fail to head the cry for relief coming from the victims which will be helpless if they are left to fight alone.—Stockton Independent

Dr. Hartman's Plain Talk to Young Men

My plain talk to young men in my last article certainly brought out many responses from young men. I take this means of answering them briefly, for the benefit of other young men who did not write me. One writer says:

"I was greatly interested in your talk to young men. I wish I was strong and well as you describe yourself to be. I am going to begin at once and follow your advice and take care of myself as I ought to. I will quit the use of all stimulants, tea and coffee, go to bed early. I will take the cold water towel bath every morning. I want to live to be old and useful, like you. And I shall also keep Peru-rina at hand, in case of slight ailments as they may arise. I thank you in the name of thousands of other young men like myself."

To this letter I replied:

"My dear Boy—Keep telling you how much good your letter has done me. To know that I am arousing the young men in matters of right living fills me with gratitude and enthusiasm. I want to help you. Write me any time you wish and I will consider your letter strictly confidential and give you prompt reply. Follow the advice I gave in my article. Whenever you have occasion to consult me further do not hesitate. Let me be your friend. If you will be obedient to me as a son ought to be I will be faithful and true to you as a father ought to be. Yours Sincerely, S. B. Hartman, M. D., Columbus, Ohio. Peru-rina, a Man-a-shin and La-cu-pla manufactured by the Peru-rina Company, Columbus, Ohio. Sold at all drug stores."

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Many persons inquire for the Old-time Peru-rina. They want the Peru-rina that their Fathers and Mothers used to take. The old Peru-rina is now called Katarno. If your doctor does not keep it for sale write the Katarno Company, Columbus, Ohio, and they will tell you all about it.

DRUIDS LOST IN WILDERNESS

Courts Called on to Rescue Lodgers From Two District Groves.

Just who is who in the Ancient Order of Druids in this State is a matter that is being closely contested by two factions of that order in Oakland. First victory in the conflict is conceded to the national body. The State grand grove, which was expelled on September 17 by the supreme grove, has maintained its independence. The No. 219 of Oakland, voted to cast its lot with the national body, whereupon 18 members withdrew and set up an independent organization which was granted a charter by the Grand Groves of California.

The national faction then sought and obtained an injunction in the Superior Court temporarily restraining the remainder of the grove from using the name of the lodge which it had expelled. It is stated that the national groves of the State will be re-organized next month, at which time steps will be taken to expel all groves which withdrew and joined the State faction.

MATCH COMPANY QUITS LOGGING
CHICO, Oct. 17.—After a record season in which more than 45,000,000 feet of lumber was cut, the five logging camps of the Diamond Match Company at Stirling City have closed down. Between 700 and 800 workmen arrived in Chico last night to spend the winter. The camps closed down two months earlier than usual because of the great amount of logs taken out there being now in the ponds 17,000,000 feet of logs. These will be worked this winter, the company intending to keep the mills at Stirling running.

ASKS BIG ALLOWANCE.
SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—Members of the Napa state hospital board and representatives of the state board of health and state board of charities and correction met yesterday with the state board of control. The Napa hospital board asked for $1,000,000 for maintenance and improvements during the next two years. The hearing was for the purpose of giving the state board of control an idea of what was needed.

CARS COLLIDE; TWO INJURED

Orders Disobeyed on United Railroads; Head-on Collision Is Result.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Disobedience of orders is said to have been responsible for a head-on collision between two cars on McAllister and Gough streets, at 8:30 o'clock this morning which caused a panic among two score passengers and resulted in the injury of two men. The injured are:

John McKensie, motorman, 1902 McAllister street, deep cuts of the face, lacerations of the scalp, injury to hip joint, fractured tibia, broken bones of the left arm, bruises of the left side, badly shaken up.

An inbound McAllister street car was about to cross at the Gough street intersection when the southbound car turned into the former thoroughfare and started up. Both motormen turned off the power as though in hesitation and then sped up again. The two vehicles crashing into each other. McKensie was thrown through the glass window in front of him and his entire face was laid open. DeVine was hurled from a position near the step and women on both cars screamed and several of them jumped to the street. That more persons were not hurt was due to the fact that neither car was moving fast.

Each motorman puts the blame on the other. A rule of the United Railroads is that both cars must stop at the crossing. The one reaching there first being given the right of way to start first.

EXPENSIVE CONVERSATION.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Dr. Charles Becker, who lives in the Alhambra apartments, California street and Van Ness avenue, held a conversation with four men on the telephone last night, and discovered afterward that one of them had stolen his watch pin valued at $150. The pin was taken with a pocket watch and six turquoise.

RAILROAD BOOSTS SAN PEDRO RATES

The State Commission Plans Another Cut in Extra Charges.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The State Railroad commission decided yesterday to reinvestigate the freight rate problem between Los Angeles and San Pedro, because it could not compel the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake route to continue their practice of absorbing the wharfage and handling charges of freight at San Pedro.

The railroad board was legally forced yesterday to grant the railways' joint petition for a discontinuance of the practice in using so it immediately decided to investigate once more the reasonableness of the rates between those points.

These two decisions bring again under review the whole scheme of rates between Los Angeles and the harbor of San Pedro. These rates were the subject of complaint more than a year ago and were substantially reduced by the commission's order. It has been the practice, however, for the three carriers, the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and Salt Lake line, to absorb in their charges the wharfage and handling cost at San Pedro. They recently united in a petition to the commission asking that they be allowed to pass this absorption.

It appeared that the commission could not compel the absorption in this case. At the same time the reduced rate schedule, which the commission has ordered into effect, had comprehensively absorbed the charges of these carriers. It was clear, therefore, that if the railroads were to be permitted to discontinue absorbing the wharfage and handling charges, which amounted in most cases to 50 cents per ton, the effect would be to add this 50 cents to the rates which the commission had fixed.

The commission decided, therefore, that while it should allow the three railroads to discontinue the absorption, it should at the same time take the opportunity to reinvestigate the rates between Los Angeles and San Pedro, considered independent of wharfage and handling charges.

In its order allowing the carriers to cancel the wharfage and handling charges it has fixed November 15 as the effective date. At the same time it has ordered a reinvestigation into the Los Angeles & San Pedro rates for October 31. It is the intention that should any modification be required in the freight rates, it should go into effect at the same time as the order allowing the discontinuance of the absorption of the wharfage and handling charges.

The commission points out that in effect, the discontinuance of absorption would, in effect, nearly the previous rate reduction.

POLICEMAN TAKES STAND AT SALEM

Declares Giovannitti Wanted to "Bust Their Heads."

SALEM, Mass., Oct. 17.—Michael A. Barry, a Lawrence policeman, testified today in the trial of Joseph Ettore, Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Caruso, members of the Industrial Workers of the World, charged with being responsible for the shooting of Anna L. Lepizze in a strike riot at Lawrence last January.

"Officer Gallagher and I met Giovannitti after he had been addressing a crowd," Barry testified. "Gallagher told him that the strike ought to be conducted more peacefully."

"You should conduct the strike by peaceful picketing," Gallagher told him, "if you want to win."

"What is peaceful picketing?" Giovannitti asked. "Why," Gallagher replied, "stopping men on their way to work and arguing with them. You should not use any force or threats."

"Oh, the hell with that," Giovannitti replied. "If they don't quit work we'll bust their heads."

In further conversation Barry testified Giovannitti spoke defiantly of the police, militia and federal troops.

OFFICIAL MISSING WITH $5,600,000

Belgium Railroad and Banks
Are Loted by Sporty Manager.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 17.—Defalcations already aggregating $5,600,000 and constantly increasing, have been unearthed in the affairs of the Grand-Termeuven railroad here through the accidental discovery of false share certificates among a small parcel recently sold.

Nestor Wilmart, the manager of the company, has disappeared and it probably will take a considerable time to determine the full extent of the financial disaster, in which are involved 24 banks, as well as scores of investors who thought themselves possessed of valuable securities.

The State Savings Bank is understood to be a victim to the extent of $80,000, while the losses of the other banks range from $4000 to $200,000.

SEEN IN PARIS.
Wilmart, who lived in splendid style, owned a racing stable, and was a director in several banks, is said to have been seen in Paris. A warrant for his arrest has been issued.

The traffic manager of the line, Rasquin, who is alleged to have been in the confidence of Wilmart, has been arrested.

A friend of Wilmart today received a telegram dated Hasselt and signed Nestor, reading:

"Inform family at Morlaime, death accidental."

Morlaime is the name of the chateau belonging to Wilmart. Nothing has developed to show whether the telegram forebodes suicide or is merely designed to throw pursuers off the scent. It is said that Wilmart had nearly $1,000,000 in his possession when he was last seen.

RICH ESTATE IS DIVIDED.

One-half of the estate, which comprises land in Butte county, money in the bank and securities, went to the widow and a son and the other half to 12 relatives.

HEIR TO MILLIONS IS MODEL INFANT

Mrs. John Jacob Astor to Stay in the Country With Child.

BERNARDSVILLE, N. J., Oct. 17.—Mrs. John Jacob Astor, who has been staying at her father's country place here, has found the outdoor life so beneficial and enjoyable both to herself and to her two-month-old baby that she will postpone her return to New York for several weeks. The youthful John Jacob Astor is said to be a model baby. He has increased rapidly in weight since his arrival here.

Mrs. Astor is giving her attention exclusively to her child and has not discussed her plans for the future outside of her family circle. She promptly vetoed the suggestion that the infant should be brought up as a bottle-fed baby and expects to "note herself entirely to his care" at least a year.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY. How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2. by Making it at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain sugar. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, bronchitis, asthma, chest pains, etc.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinine, and all the healing elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., 74, Wayne, Ind.

GIRL IS SLAIN BY REPULSED SUITOR

Unrequited Affection Is Cause of Crime in Oregon Town.

CONDON, Or., Oct. 17.—Unrequited affection is believed to have inspired the slaying of Miss Virgie Hart and the superficial injury of U. S. Crane, a bystander, in this place last night. The authorities are searching for Robert Morgan, whose attentions Miss Hart had repulsed and who, after the killing of the young woman, disappeared.

Miss Hart, with her parents, who now live at The Dalles, Or., came to Condon several months ago from Kentucky. Soon afterward Morgan, also a Kentuckian, who has been working as a farm laborer, put in an appearance.

Morgan, according to friends of the young woman, endeavored to press his suit, but Miss Hart repulsed his advances. Last night, while the girl was standing near a local hotel, four shots rang out. One of these struck Miss Hart, killing her; another slightly injured Crane, who was a passerby, and the other two went wild.

Morgan fled directly after the shooting, the local authorities, augmented by angered citizens, taking up the pursuit. The man secured but a few minutes' lead over his pursuers and his capture is expected momentarily.

LION HUNT IN BOLINAS.

SAN RAFAEL, Oct. 17.—For the first time in 20 years a real live California lion has invaded Bolinas, and is dining on the young livestock of the farmers in that locality.

Yesterday Leonard Vott, a dairyman, residing several miles north of the town, discovered the lion attacking a calf in a field adjoining his place. He shouted and evidently frightened the animal, for when he returned with the lion he had departed, leaving a badly mangled calf. Several other ranchers have lost calves and horses through the depredations of the big cat, and a lion hunt is now being organized in that section.

RESORTS SEEK WAY TO EVADE CLOSING

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 17.—To prevent the closing of the saloons attached to some of the springs of the Sonoma valley it has been proposed to incorporate all of the springs and resorts territory into a municipality. The people of the county are confronted with a proposal to close all of the roadhouses, and this will be voted on at the November election. Should the anti-rooming house legislation carry it will knock out the saloons of some of the resorts, and the owners are preparing to save their liquor licenses.

Under the proposed legislation only bona-fide hotels with at least forty guest rooms each and public dining-rooms for serving meals can hold a liquor license, and many of the resorts could not comply with this provision.

Sick Women

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured many cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are five letters from southern women which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks to you and your great medicine for the relief from female troubles I have been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time."

"Now I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what these medicines have done for me and I will always speak a good word for them."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Montgomery Co., Va.

LETTER FROM LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, La.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy feelings, backache and irregularities. I would get up in the morning feeling tired out and not fit to do anything."

"Since I have been taking your Compound and Blood Purifier I feel all right. Your medicines are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. GASTON BLANCHARD, 1541 Polymnia St., New Orleans, La.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

Waukeela, Fla.—"Some time ago I wrote to you giving you my symptoms, headache, backache, bearing-down, and discomfort in walking, caused by female troubles."

"I got two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash and that was all I used to make me a well woman. I am satisfied that if I had done like a good many women, and had not taken your remedies, I would have been a great sufferer. But I started in time with the right medicine and got well. It did not cost very much either. I feel that you are a friend to all women and I would rather use your remedies than have a doctor."—Mrs. MARTIE HODGKIN, Box 406, Waukeela, Florida.

LETTER FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Martinsburg, W. Va.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for my mother, daughter and myself."

"I have told dozens of people about it and my mother says that when she hears a girl complaining with cramps, she tells her to take your Compound."—Mrs. MARY A. HOCKENBERRY, 712 N. 3rd St., Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM VIRGINIA

Newport News, Va.—"About five years ago I was troubled with such pains and bloating every month that I would have to go to bed."

"A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. The medicine strengthened me in every way and my doctor approved of my taking it."

"I will be glad if my testimony will help some one who is suffering from female weakness."—Mrs. W. J. BLATT, 1029 Hampton Ave., Newport News, Va.

Why don't you try this reliable remedy?

DEEPENING WATER NEAR GOAT ISLAND

Impediments to Shipping in the Bay Are to Be Removed.

For the purpose of deepening the water about Goat Island the Pacific Coast Dredging Company's dredger No. 5 was shifted out of the inner harbor today by the tug Priscilla. The portion of the dredger to be shifted is the portion of the dredger which has been causing no end of trouble to shipping on the bay, the water at this position being so shallow that a number of vessels, in shifting to the Oakland side, in some instances have caused not only considerable loss in time, but have also resulted in the necessity of placing the craft on the ways for repairs.

With over 2000 feet of dredge pipe loaded aboard a number of dredge pontoons, the tug Priscilla left the inner harbor this morning for San Pablo bay. The pontoons, in addition to carrying the pipe were also fitted out with small electric poles. Each pontoon carried three of these poles and the poles were wired to carry the fuel to the dredgers working in San Pablo bay. Upon their arrival the wires will be connected and the usual delay in driving poles into the water from the main land will be done away with, saving considerable time.

GRINGS GUALALA'S CAPTAIN.

With Captain Martinson of the wrecked schooner Gualala arrived here today. The Gualala was struck recently by the tanker Argyle off Union Landing and because of her unseaworthy condition was abandoned by her crew and captain. An attempt was made by Captain Smith of the Mitchell to get a line aboard the wrecked craft, but after having several hawsers break the attempt was given up. It is expected that one of the larger steamers coming up the coast will bring the vessel into port. According to Captain Smith, the vessel is in precarious position and unless picked up soon will be lost altogether.

Heavy swells are buffeting it about considerably and it is feared that the Gualala will go ashore before she can be saved. The steam schooner Avalon, Captain Christensen, arrived here this morning on her initial round trip from Astoria. According to her captain, the vessel was unable to take on all the passengers who asked for bookings on the new craft. The engines of the Avalon were installed here. The Avalon is at Long wharf discharging a lumber cargo.

Proposition to amend article XIII of the constitution of the State of California by the addition of a new section to said article, to be designated and numbered as section 6 of said article, relating to taxation by counties, cities and towns, and to cities, towns and townships, and empowering any such political subdivision to raise revenue for its local purposes and to provide for collecting taxes for such purposes by ordinance or resolution adopted by a majority vote of the qualified electors thereof at an election held on the question of establishing such revenue system, authorizing such system to be submitted at any general or special election held therein by initiative petition as provided by law or by resolution of the legislative body of such political subdivision.

How the annexation amendment will appear on the ballot. Notice that it is sixth in the list. Do not be misled by amendment three, which heads the list.

Annexation Plot to Be Hidden and Buried Without Heading or Designation

There is grave danger that the anti-annexation amendment as it will appear on the November ballot will be confused in the minds of the voters with Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 3, which will appear first in the list of amendments to be voted upon, and which HAS NO BEARING ON THE QUESTION OF CONSOLIDATION.

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 3 relates to the methods of handling county funds and irrigation district bonds.

WHAT HAS HERETOFORE BEEN DESIGNATED AS CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 3, THE ANNEXATION CONSPIRACY, IS BURIED WITHOUT HEADING OR DESIGNATION, AS THE SIXTH AMENDMENT ON THE LIST.

It will be necessary for the voters of the State of California to exercise particular care and attention to see that in voting down the annexation or consolidation amendment they stamp a cross in the "No" space opposite the sixth amendment.

The danger of misunderstanding became known when pamphlets were received from Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, containing a list of amendments to the constitution, the arguments for and against, and a reproduction how they will appear on the November ballot.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

NAT IS ACCUSED OF STEALING LOVE; IS SUED FOR $25,000

Real Estate Man Is After Revenge on Goodwin; Miss Moreland Agitated.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 17.—Charles Doughty, a real estate man, yesterday brought suit against Nat Goodwin, the famous actor, for $25,000 damages for the alienation of his wife's affections. Mrs. Doughty is known on the stage as Margie Moreland and has played with Goodwin as his leading lady.

Doughty in his complaint alleges that Goodwin, through his clever manners and winning ways, captured the affection of his wife against her will, and that when he had won her she was willing to remain away from her lawful husband.

There have been persistent rumors that Goodwin contemplated a fifth marriage and that Miss Moreland would be the bride. Both laughed at the gossip, but not until yesterday was it generally known that Miss Moreland was married.

SHE'S SUING FOR DIVORCE. LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—Miss Margie Moreland was at the home of Nat Goodwin at Santa Monica when the news of the filing of the $25,000 alienation suit by her husband, Charles Doughty, against Goodwin, was broken to her. Miss Moreland was greatly agitated, and at first declined to discuss the matter at all. Goodwin said he knew nothing about the suit, and declared the idea was preposterous.

Miss Moreland finally consented to talk after she was assured that the suit had been filed. She then explained her relations with her husband, in order, she said, to justify herself.

"I will state the facts sufficiently to justify my position in the eyes of the public," said Miss Moreland. She told the story of how she came to leave her husband and went on the stage.

BORROWED FARE FROM MOTHER. "Four years ago," said the actress, "I found it necessary to leave my husband because he did not properly support me. I thought I might have some talent as an actress and I sought employment on the stage. I will say, in this connection, that it was necessary for me to borrow money from my mother to pay my railway fare in order to get employment."

"From that time to this I have heard nothing of my husband. He has not in any way contributed to my support. Having fairly well established myself in my profession I decided to bring suit for divorce, which I did three or four weeks ago in my home city, Baltimore, Md."

DIVORCE HEARING SOON. "That case will come up for hearing in a short time, and I feel satisfied that then those who take any interest in my personal affairs will find that my cause is entirely justifiable."

Goodwin had not heard of the suit against him, and when told of it he laughed at it.

"This is the first time I've heard of it," he said; "and I see no reason to take it seriously. I have not been served with any summons, and therefore cannot reply to the charge. Besides, I do not know what it is. I can only say that, whatever it is, it is preposterous, that's all."

Miss Moreland was to have appeared with Goodwin as his leading lady for an engagement at a local stock theater, but their appearance was prevented by his serious injury near Santa Monica two months ago while boating with Miss Moreland.

Nat Goodwin, Sr., father of the comedian, is here from Boston to pay visit to his son, who is convalescing, and will be out in a few weeks.

Preparing 'Em. LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—How to dress and how to choose a husband; what course to pursue in a strange town; the duties of a wife; the effect of attire, and many other things of a kindred nature, are taught in the novel social ethics course just started at the State Normal School. This department, under direction of Miss Alice Hamerell, is "teaching a bit" with the girls, and about 600 juniors are in the class. All the problems to be discussed will be based on moral philosophy and the aim is to impress on the young women that every action of theirs in society has its influence on someone else.

Some of the answers given today to the question "How should a girl dress?" are interesting, as for instance: "Dress to please the men."

"Dress is one element in the process of making or marring the opposite sex."

"Some men like conspicuous clothes on women, but we shouldn't dress for that type of men."

"The large woman should never appear in a flame-colored blouse and the woman with pigeon toes and large feet should always eschew short skirts."

Police Hunt Dog. NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Patrick, the French poodle that Mrs. Robert Griffin bought in Paris last June for $100, when she was on her honeymoon, caused distress to his mistress yesterday by getting lost in Central Park.

Going west on Fifty-ninth street, the poodle started to cross the street just as a wagon came along. Patrick got mixed up with the rear wheel and ran on three legs to the Sixth avenue entrance to Central Park.

When Mrs. Griffin reached the park entrance she could not see her dog. She drove to the Arsenal police station in a taxi and told Sergeant Cassidy. Cassidy found the dog.

Duchess Ill. LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Duchess of Marlborough has canceled her engagement to inaugurate a hospital here in view of the condition of her health. She has been ordered to take a complete rest.

HAIR. Is it not better for you to give a little more to your hair now than to wait a month until you are entirely bald? Consult scalp specialists.

MANLY BEAUTY NO MORE

By LILLIAN RUSSELL
Copyright, 1912, by Lillian Russell.

THE sad news has come to us that the beautifully-dressed man is no more. And the fact is deplored that there are no more duds in America. The truth is that all men are dressing and looking better today, so that there are no exceptional few as existed some years ago. A handsomely-dressed man a few years ago was a conspicuous character, regarded as a fop and laughed at by those who didn't know. Today men take as much care of their faces and forms as do women. All the barbers give facial massage. Cold creams are used to beautify men's faces; powder is selected of the finest quality, "to use after shaving." Hot towels are used to steam out the lines and crow's feet. No end of electric devices are invented, and men get them before they reach the departments for women.

We all know how sensitive men are about their hair. Scarcely a man would prefer to be bald to being fat. And yet they will wear their hats in and out of the office, causing circulation to stop in the top of their heads and killing the roots of their hair. The reason that women do not become bald is because they never wear their hats tightly pulled down over their heads, but allow air to get to the hair at all times. The lack of change in the fashions for men's attire leaves little expense for them other than extravagant accessories to their toilets. And the man who affects too many fancy waistcoats and too much jewelry is considered effeminate unless he is sufficiently large and celebrated to defy suspicion. A few years ago dress suits could be counted in an audience. Today almost every man appears in an evening dress when he goes to theater or opera, another proof that the well-dressed man is not conspicuous nowadays. Rather the conspicuous man is the one who does not put on evening dress when dining or going to the theater with women.

Business men are naturally lazy about dressing and there are very few of them who would not prefer to wear their business suits until bed time. It is only civilization and social rules that compel them to be more than savages. I often wonder that men who think so much of themselves and who are so susceptible to flattery so often neglect the ordinary rules of toilet and etiquette simply from laziness. They are the first to notice a neglectful woman, yet they are not willing to return the compliment of dress and manners unless driven to it by love or pride. But such men today are in the minority and a well-groomed man is as fully appreciated as a well-groomed woman. Hence the decadence of the dude. Men should remember that when they are criticising women they must themselves be above criticism.

Answers to Queries. LILLIAN—There is nothing better for chapped lips than a good cream. Apply the cream to the lips at night when retiring. Don't bite your lips. This will make them coarse, colorless and thick. Yes, if you follow the instructions in regard to gaining flesh I am sure you will add a few pounds to your weight.

ANXIOUS—Blonde hair should be washed once a month to keep it in good condition. Use a good shampoo and be sure and get it all out of the hair. Never rub the soap directly on the hair, for it is almost impossible to get it out. Rinse the hair thoroughly. This is very important in shampooing the hair. Nothing will spoil blonde hair, or in fact any hair, more quickly than soap if it is allowed to remain in.

ESTHER—There is nothing that will reduce your nose. When the bone is enlarged nothing you would do would reduce it. No, I do not believe in surgical operations for the purpose. I would advise you to use plain yellow vasoline on your nostrils to stimulate growth. Be careful that you do not get any of it into the eyes when applying it, for oil of any kind irritates them.

E. H.—I am sorry, but I cannot give addresses of any kind to my correspondents.

MISS BERTHA—I cannot tell you all you wish through my columns on account of lack of space, but shall be glad to send you formula for the French tonic for lasses and brows, skin food, with instructions for facial massage. Few people keep their dimples. As one grows older they usually disappear. The cream has not caused it to disappear.

R. T.—If you are troubled with a red nose avoid all sudden changes in temperature; don't eat spicy, rich foods. Bathe the nose frequently with alcohol.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

JUNIORS TO DANCE ON TOMORROW EVENING

STUDENT RULE GREAT SUCCESS

PLEAD FOR GIRLS IN SORORITY MIX-UP

With all signs pointing to success, the semi-annual Junior Dance, given by the Junior Class of the Oakland High School, will be held tomorrow evening in the high school gymnasium with 150 couples of young people invited. Not the slightest detail has been overlooked by the dance committee that might stand in the way of a most successful evening. One of the best orchestras that could be secured about the bay will furnish the music for the occasion.

A local caterer has been engaged to take care of the refreshments for the young people.

Dainty programs, printed in gold on brown paper, will have 35-inch silk cords for the young ladies, which is a new departure in high school dances.

The dance committee is in charge of the program of dances. The others on the committee are: Alice Leigh, Charlotte Crockett, Alice Crellin, Wyandott Gurnea and Vernon Snook. The committee will decorate the gym with greens and streamers. The class colors, gold and brown, will be featured in the decorations.

The Self Government Committee is busy at work this evening. Plans are on foot for a self government day, and every effort will be made to continue the success with which the movement has met.

MODESTO WOMAN IS DEAD. MODESTO, Oct. 17.—Mrs. T. B. Scott, wife of T. B. Scott of the law firm of Hutton & Scott, died suddenly yesterday night. Her former home was at Oranga, south of Chicago, where her father, J. K. Eley, has been president of a bank that has borne his name for the last twenty years. The funeral arrangements await the arrival of her father.

NEWSBOY MAY DIE AS RESULT OF SACRIFICE. GARY, Ind., Oct. 17.—William Ruck, the newsboy who gave his disabled leg for a computer so that sufficient skin might be obtained from it to graft upon the burned body of Miss Edith Smith, is recovering from his injuries.

The boy's sudden release came within an hour of the time that Miss Smith was discharged from the hospital, convalescent and nearly well.

The girl's last act in the hospital was to visit the room in which lay the boy whose sacrifice had saved her life.

She knelt at the side of his bed and kissed him. She was crying as she left the ward.

SIBLINGS IN SCHOOLS. SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—The State W. C. T. U. is conducting here in a graded school a series of lessons for the pupils in the public schools. A resolution was passed urging prohibition districts to give the children of the army and navy.

THAT IS something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scarlatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the digestive organs into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the food matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.

Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Hathorn.

ENTERTAINMENT ERECT. Miss Winifred O'Brien entertained yesterday in compliance to Miss May Bennett's engagement to James N. ...

Oakland and Local Speakers Arouse Enthusiasm at Mass Meeting.

RICHMOND, Oct. 17.—President Gibson and a number of members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce last evening were the principal speakers at a monster mass meeting held in A. O. U. W. hall for the purpose of discussing the proposed new tariff schedule.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Richmond Board of Trade, and the leading men and women of this city turned out to get specific and definite information upon a subject which they realize may concern them very closely in the future.

Secretary D. A. Knowles of the board of trades introduced the speakers, and in telling hits made came so fast and hard on the applause and the speaker from the city. Edward Sterns formerly secretary of the Oakland body, asked why Francisco wanted Richmond just as soon as it began to get large and wealthy and gave the answer as being "to get access to our taxable property."

CLAY TELLS STORY.

I. H. Clay of Oakland followed and twisted the tail of Amendment No. 6 in no uncertain manner, much to the delight of the audience. President Gibson took up the borough system of New York which he handled in a masterful manner showing thorough knowledge of the subject, and showing how the swallows cities had long ago surrendered their independence to the politicians. It was shown to the people of Richmond that the amendment carried and annexation followed the strongest political machine west of the Rocky mountains would result, and that Richmond, as well as ever other east bay city, would be absolute at the mercy of it. San Francisco's bonded indebtedness was shown, and it was pointed out that Richmond's share of that would be just $1,394,747, or very close up to the bonded capacity allowed this city now under the law.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 17. — Syracuse university's navy, which was deprived of all of its shells by the tornado that swept over the northern part of the city of Syracuse a few weeks ago, will practice in Cornell shells for the balance of the season. Graduate Manager Steadman of the Syracuse has bought the 1905 and 1906 shells that carried the crews which won the eight oared races on the Hudson. It doubtless will also be purchased by the local management.

The Love Letters of a Confederate General

in PICTORIAL REVIEW for November

begins one of the greatest series of love letters ever written

These letters were written by a Confederate General to his future wife. Composed in the thick of the struggle, they will go down in history as the tenderest memory of the great war between the States. They touch our memories of the lost cause like a roseleaf on the graves where lie

"Under the sod and the dew waiting the Judgment Day
Under the laurel the Blue under the willow the Gray."

The four years' struggle between North and South is over; the knightly hand that penned these letters is forever at rest. Yet, as you read the letters, you hear once more the thunder of artillery, the scream of shot and shell; you catch a glimpse of the great soldier's sweetheart wife in her desolate home. In these letters the Confederate General unlocked his heart.

"Even now," he wrote three days after Gettysburg, "I can hear them cheering as I give the order, 'Forward.' I can feel the thrill of their joyous voices all along the line. Oh how faithfully they kept their word—following me on—on to their death. I can't write you a love letter today, my darling.... It seems sacrilegious almost to say I love you, with those hearts that are stilled to love. Your Soldier."

Who was this man—bravest of soldiers, most chivalrous of lovers?

and you will know; but we are pledged not to tell you his name, for the noble woman who inspired his devotion is still living, and now after fifty years has permitted PICTORIAL REVIEW to give them to the world.

Northerner and Southerner alike will respond to the thrill of these letters—human documents of a kind never written before, never to be written again.
